Your Wedding Venue...

Situated in the heart of 1066 Country between the historic towns of Battle and Hastings, this stunning Georgian country house can be yours, exclusively for your special day. Fall in love with its unique character and style, a modern boutique hotel with many original features.

A friendly welcome greets you from the moment you step through our front door. From your initial enquiry, to the big day itself, our professional and attentive team will be there to support you throughout each and every step of your planning process.

Whether enjoying every moment of your wedding day with us, including saying "I do", or simply choosing individual elements to suit your preference, your day will be tailored perfectly to your requirements ensuring that your wedding, is the one of your dreams.

Boasting 38 bedrooms, including 5 superior rooms, your guests can make this their home for your special day, helping to provide a wonderful setting to catch up with friends and family before and after your celebrations.

With menus designed to meet your exact specification and fine wines sourced from around the world, you can be sure that your personal tastes are reflected throughout every aspect of your celebration.

Complemented by picturesque gardens and patios that act as the perfect backdrop to your photographs, this inspired choice of a venue will ensure your wedding day is one to remember.

Your Wedding Day...

Whether waking on your special day in one of our luxurious suites or nervously awaiting your grand entrance from home, you will start your day confident in the knowledge that our professional and experienced staff will have taken care of all your specific requirements, allowing your day to be simply perfect.

Having chosen our hotel for your wedding ceremony, your guests begin to gather in our Terrace Bar or lounge area, relaxed in the knowledge that yours is the only wedding taking place. You are our absolute priority.

Your guests will be guided to your chosen wedding setting, either the elegant Quebec and Murray room located in the original country house or our beautiful Summer House nestled amongst our stunningly landscaped gardens, where the groom is waiting nervously for his bride to arrive. A few final moments to take in the beautiful surroundings, finished perfectly by your own personal touches and adornments, before the ceremony begins as the bride makes her grand entrance.

After taking your vows overlooking our picturesque gardens or having just arrived at our hotel for your wedding reception celebrations, your guests will enjoy drinks and canapés whilst your photographer takes advantage of the stunning backdrops for individual and group photographs, both inside and outside the hotel.

Once your perfect pictures have been captured, it is time to enjoy a sumptuous wedding breakfast. For a close and intimate gathering, The Boardroom is the perfect setting for up to 18 guests or our Garden Room can cater for up to 30 guests. For a large and decadent celebration, you have the option of the Quebec and Murray room in the original house or our purpose built Montgomerie Suite with its own private drive and terrace overlooking our gardens, which can cater for up to 300 people.

After enjoying coffee and cake with champagne flowing, your speeches will mark the close of your daytime reception, ready for the evening celebrations to begin.

Your Next Step...

Please arrange an appointment with our Events Manager who will discuss all of your requirements and provide a tour of our hotel and grounds.

If you would then like to make a provisional reservation, we can hold your desired date for up to 14 days following which, we would require a deposit to confirm your booking.

We will then contact you to discuss your plans in further detail and confirm these in writing. Meetings will then follow as frequently as you wish, keeping your information updated at every stage as we plan for your special day.

We look forward to helping you plan your perfect wedding day
